

Since New Jersey enacted their Do Not Call law life has been more peaceful in this household. I shudder to think that we as Seniors would have to go back to being harassed at all hours by unwanted calls from early morning until late evening.